A Word from Our President

Hi Club!

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the club social on August 4th. Nothing better than good friends and good food with plenty of time to enjoy it.

Also, be thinking of who would be a good person to have on the nominating committee to select next year's club officers. We will be casting votes at our monthly meeting.

Thanks again to all the instructors and assistants who taught this last session and a big thanks to those who volunteered to instruct next session.

We also really appreciate all the volunteers for the Show-N-Go's and the CGC events.

See you soon!

Training Committee News

NEW MANUAL: The new student handbook has been submitted for preparation for printing. It will first be unveiled electronically to those participating in the August 12th training. Our plan is to have the manual ready for Session 6. A link to it will be emailed by Eventbrite to Beginner and Puppy students each session and hard copies will be available for those we are not able to access it electronically or, for other reason, request a hard copy.

The Training Committee will turn our efforts to updating the Instructor and Assistant Manual next.

THANK YOU: As always, I want to extend a special thank you to those who have volunteered to instruct or assist this year. I appreciate your contribution of time, planning, effort, and patience to help the students who come to us for training.

We still need a few instructors and assistants for Sessions 5 and 6 so, if you can help us, please contact Carol Ford or Sally Browning. If you are a new member, you do not need experience to assist. We will train you.

Jan Bajovich

DTCCDC Training Director

NEW MANUAL ROLLOUT!!!! AUGUST 12TH!!!!

The Training Committee is requesting your presence on August 12th to see the new manual and get up to speed on some cool new methods introduced there. If you have any plans to instruct or assist a Puppy or Beginner class in the future, we need you there! If you are just curious about the new manual and want to join us, feel free to RSVP and join us.

There will be two sessions offered on August 12th. Session 1 will be from 9 a.m. to Noon and Session 2 will be 1 to 4 p.m. You need only attend one of the sessions. Lunch will be provided Noon to 1 p.m. for both sessions.

Please RSVP to janbajovich@yahoo.com with which session you will attend so we can plan seating and lunches. Thank you to those who have already signed up!

Instructor/Assistant Corner:

Instructors, are you all aware that Eventbrite will generate emails to your students? Once you are given access to your class, click on the class name in Eventbrite, go to the menu on the right-hand side, click "Manage Attendees", then "Emails to Attendees" and then click the blue button in the center of the page, "Create New Attendee Mail".

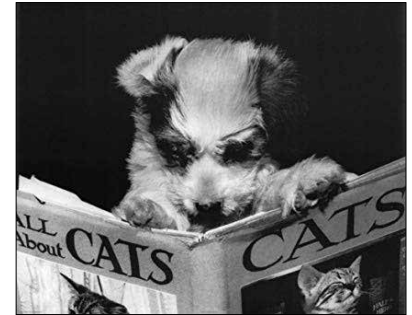

Eventbrite does not allow attachments, but you can copy and paste a link into the email.

Some links you might want to send are articles in Fido's Extra Reading Material on our website. There are articles on crating, socialization, housebreaking, grooming and many other topics. You can send the link to articles related to your weekly discussion topics for Puppy and Beginner class.

Check back often because in the future, we will be adding more articles and resources to Fido's Extra Reading Material. If you have resources you would like to add to Fido's Extra Reading Material, please let me know. I would like to see this page of our website updated with new information and become a useful resource for instructors and students.

Remember to let your students know about Fido's Extra Reading Material. The articles there are available to the public.

The Dog Days of Summer: Heroic Hounds

In honor of the Dog Days of Summer, here is a selection of dogs, famous and less so, who have made headlines, saved lives, and licked the competition.

Dog Days of Summer

The Dog Days of summer are traditionally the 40 days beginning July 3 and ending August 11, which coincide with the morning rise of the Dog Star, Sirius. The Dog Star starts rising soon after the summer solstice and that signals the onset of hot days and sultry nights.

Salty and Roselle, the 911 wonder dogs

Widely honored for their life-saving work at the World Trade Center, Salty and Roselle were yellow labs whose work saved the lives of many people during the September 11, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center.

The dogs led their owners -- and others -- more than 70 floors down to the ground after the attacks, and then through the blizzard of debris when the towers collapsed.

Roselle's owner, Michael Higby, said: "While everyone ran in panic, Roselle remained totally focused on her job, while debris fell around us, and even hit us, Roselle stayed calm."

Bobbie, the determined dog

Bobbie the Scottish Collie gained fame after 1923 for his breathtaking 3,000-mile trip to find his family.

Bobbie's family, from Oregon, was visiting Indiana when Bobbie got in a dog fight and ran off. Despite a long search, he could not be found and his family returned to Oregon.

But six months later, the dog, straggly and worn, found his family in Oregon, having trailed them back home over mountains and deserts.

The story is not only a triumph of the dog's spirit, but also the kindness of human strangers. Bobbie was helped and nursed by many along his way.

Togo, the unrequited hero of sled dogs

Courage, leadership, loyalty--Togo the Siberian Husky had them all, though he started his life as a sickly pup and was then repeatedly rejected for the sled because he was too rowdy.

But Togo showed them all. First, when given away as a pet, Togo jumped through a glass window to return to his musher. There, Togo got in dog fights and repeatedly broke out of his kennel to follow the sled. Finally, at 8 months old, he was given a chance in the team. He was a natural leader.

In 1925, 20 mushers were given the task of relaying diphtheria serum more than 600 miles to Nome, Alaska. The heroic feat was a test for man and beast in January with temperatures at 40 below zero and whiteout conditions. Then 12 years old, Togo led his sled 365 miles round trip across ice, up a mountain, and a swim through ice floes, during which he saved the team's lives.

Although the well-known and also heroic sled dog Balto received most of the fame for completing the last leg of the trip, it was Togo whose work is generally acknowledged as the hardest.

His owner and musher, Leonhard Seppala, was crushed that Togo's feat of courage and endurance was less recognized than Balto's. Seppala and Togo retired to Maine after many wins in the musher world.

Barry der Menschenretter (people rescuer)

In the treacherous Swiss Alps, the tradition of rescue dogs began as early as the 1700s. Though many dogs were known for their rescue of humans, none was so celebrated as Barry. During his career in the early 1800s, Barry saved more than 40 people. No rescue was as famous as his rescue of a young boy he found trapped, partially frozen and asleep in an ice cavern.

Barry licked the boy to warm him and wake him. The dog then contrived to get the boy to cling to his back and the two made their way to The Great Saint Bernard Hospice, where Barry lived and was trained. At the hospice, one dog has always been named Barry in honor of the great rescuer.

Willow, the last of the royal corgis

Although Buckingham Palace refused comment, word went out in April 2018 that the last of the line of royal corgis, Willow, had died.

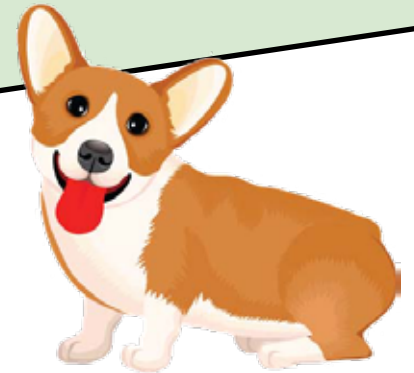

Willow was believed to be the 14th generation of royal corgis, beloved by Queen Elizabeth since she was gifted the corgi Susan on her 18th birthday.

The queen stopped breeding corgis in 2002, worrying that a young dog would be left behind after her death, according to the New York Times.

Originally bred as cattle herding dogs, the corgi's short legs made it a natural to weave in and out around cattle's hooves.

Queen Elizabeth once remarked that the dogs were small and happy in groups so "one can have quite a lot of them."

Meanwhile, Prince Harry has been much less flattering about the corgi domination of the family, saying he has spent 33 years being barked at.

Kay Mashburn brags:

Parrie Mashburn's Goldendoodle, Dulce, earned her AKC STAR puppy on July 16th.

Kay Mashburn's Sheltie, Missy, has now earned her AKC Trick Dog Intermediate and Trick Dog Advanced titles. We are very proud of our two wonderful girls!

Thanks for letting us brag!

Georgann Hughes brags:

The Jazz Man & Swish are adding to their Nosework achievements! On July 14 & 15 we travelled to Mineola, TX, for the United Dog Owners Club first UKC Nosework trials. Jazz passed two more PreTrial tests for Superior & Master odors. He also earned his Novice Interior

Michele Hosey brags about her Trick Dog class:

I have some brags on students in the Tricks class this session! 6 titles were earned! John Cullen and Rex (Novice), Diane Gossett and Caleb (Novice), Jane Bungarz and Ellie (Novice), Lynda Holman and Duncan (Intermediate), Kay Mashburn and Missy (Advanced), and Cindy Sullivan and Abbey (Advanced). Congratulations to all! Horst Bungarz and Kaiser had already earned their title, but came to provide family support! Many thanks to Pam White for evaluating. So much fun!

Title with a 4th place and Advanced Container Title with 2nd & 3rd places. Jazz is attracting a following with people coming into the search areas to watch him. Not many Pekingese in Dog sports!

Swish came away with her Superior Container Title and a 1st place in her first run! She's getting into the tougher levels! Jazz & Swish travelled with me to Tulsa, OK, the end of June for UKC Nosework at the Companion Dog Training Club of Tulsa. Swish finished two titles - Novice Handler Discrimination (& earned an Advanced leg) & Advanced Interiors. She earned two 4th places & two lovely New Title rosettes.

Jazz earned a Novice Vehicles leg with a 1st place, a Novice Handler Discrimination leg with a 2nd place & a Novice Interior leg, also with a 2nd place. We had a fun weekend trialing alongside other DTCDC members!

Ken Hagmueller & Sandi Myers brag:

Sammy has had a busy summer so far. He earned his CGC. In Conformation, they earned a 5 point major at the Dallas shows with a Select towards his Grand Ch. At the Houston shows, they earned a 4-point major with another Select giving Sammy all of his majors & defeats (now we are only a few points away in limited showing). Ken and Sammy also won Best Owner Handled Longhaired Dachshund at the Houston KC show, and went on to win a Group 1 in the Owner Handled Hound Group under breeder judge Luis Sosa.

Jan Hitchborn brags:

June 29, 2018 we went to Tulsa for the Companion Dog Club of Tulsa nosework weekend. They graciously assigned Logan to his first DIW run since earning his EN title. On June 29 he earned his UKC Advance Handler Discrimination Title with a first place and Maggie earned her first two legs in UKC Novice Handler Discrimination with two 3rd place times. June 30 Maggie earned her Novice interior title with a 4th place and Logan ran elite interiors for fun earning a 2nd place.

July 14/15 we were in Mineola for UDOG's first UKC nosework trial. Logan worked all weekend at various DIW assignments in addition to the elite runs in which I had entered him for practice. Maggie earned her Advance Container title and her first leg in Advance Interiors with a 2nd place. Logan earned a first in Elite Containers and a first in Elite Interiors. Biggest success of both trials was Miss Maggie Mae's blooming confidence and excitement to go to the trial and work and meet and see all the people. As this partnership with her grows, she has just bloomed everywhere and she burst out of her crate with enthusiasm to go search.

Lynda & Gary Holman Brag:

Kate and Duncan earned their AKC Novice Trick Dog (TKN) titles on April 12, and Duncan earned his AKC Intermediate Trick Dog (TKI) title on July 12. Our thanks to the wonderful instructors and assistants of the club's Thursday afternoon Trick Dog Classes!
