A Very Happy Birthday To All!

Members are asked to bring a wrapped gift to the club meeting for the month of their Birthday.

The gifts go to the winners of the Sunshine Drawings. Sunshine funds raised are used to purchase cards, flowers, or other expressions of care and concern for club members who need support and comfort.

Since we aren't having in-person meetings, we will catch up when we can meet in-person and bring gifts for all the missed months.

A Word from Our President

Thank you, each of you. As my term as president comes to a close, it might seem cliché to say “I couldn’t have done it without you” but, I couldn’t have. When I accepted this position, it was with trepidation. Less than four months later, the world was shut down due to Covid. Talk about a game-changer!

We had our first Zoom meeting in May 2020 thanks to the efforts of our Technology Committee. Slowly we learned how to navigate in an environment of masks and social distancing. Show n go’s operated on a limited basis. After a seven-month break, we re-started classes in October 2020. We have continued growing our class base through a very successful series of six sessions in 2021 (Training committee: take a bow!).

We have many members with new dogs, many members that are training their dogs, and many members that are participating in trials and going to national events. You have all brought the club back to life. Your optimism, determination, and maybe stubbornness? have prevailed. We have had several new members in the past few months. Don’t stop now!

Our building also suffered from neglect, allowing many mice to take up residence. Again, our members stepped up to cover the cost in a tough financial time for our club. To further provide a fresh look to our club, Vicki Jackson has led the charge to get our building painted, scheduled for November 6.

Thank you to a very supportive board that helped make decisions and lead the club through these past two years. Lana Shuman, you never missed a PawPrint – the presses kept rolling!

A special thanks to Sheryll Barker, her guidance on keeping us safe was invaluable.

When you look at ALL the people that have been involved in keeping this club moving forward, the new Board is lucky to know you have their back! Good luck to Margaret and the new board, they are looking forward to your volunteerism and active participation in DTCCDC!

“I’m a true believer in the strength of teamwork, in the power of dreams, and in the absolute necessity of a support structure.” – Julie Payette

Your President,

Shari Price

Proudest Doggone Moment with My Dog

Editor's note: I missed getting this in the October edition. My apologies to Jan. and her awesome dogs.

Jan Hitchborn

(Top, center) This moment with Logan I treasure. He had earned his elite nosework exterior title the trial before this one in photo. Many had said was an easy trial and take it as a give me. Went to Tulsa two months later and did both elite exteriors there for fun and he earned first place in both. Was a huge area and even had a small boat in it. This photo captured by photographer I did not know was taking photos from afar. Logan had just aced the first trial and we got a Q ribbon and I was laughing and telling him "You showed 'em. You are so great".

(Left, center) Maggie earning her NADD Senior Dock Diving title. Definitely had never even been on my horizon to do!

Need a new trick to teach your dog?

Are you ready for a challenge? This month you can try teaching your pup to yawn! This trick is from doggiebuddy.com. Happy training!

Teach Your Dog to YAWN!

Difficulty: Moderate

Prerequisite: None

Items Needed: Clicker, Treats

The clock says the time is eleven-thirty. It's dark out and you're tired, and the couple on the couch haven't stopped talking. They are your friends or used to be—you're not so sure now. But the greyhound in the corner is your friend. "Come here boy," you whisper under the jabbering of the couple. He lays down by your legs and you look at him. You stare into his eyes and say, "Are you tired?" He smacks his lips and yawns, his great teeth revealing themselves, then disappearing again. "Yes, I know you're tired," you say and pat his head, "I am too." Your friends get the message.

Step 1:	Most dogs will yawn when they are anxious. You can use that to help you catch the yawn. Look for your dog to yawn when he wants to go outside or wants a ball or toy that you are holding. When he yawns, click and treat. Because this trick must be 'caught' with the clicker, it can be difficult, and you have to time your clicks exactly right.
Step 2:	When he starts to offer a yawn because he has been treated for it, go ahead, and give the command you want to associate with his action. It could be yawn, tired, or sleepy, but in any case, be consistent with your command. Repeat three to four times per session.
Step 3:	After several sessions of training your dog to yawn, give him the command and see if he will respond with a yawn.

OUR EXPERIENCE

Because we have to catch Caspian in the act of yawning, it can be frustrating when trying to get him to yawn multiple times in a training session. Caspian will lick his muzzle and yawn if he is anxious, so sometimes during our training session, we would turn around and not say anything for a few seconds. Caspian, not knowing what to do, would then get a little anxious. An assistant would either click or let the trainer know when to click if he yawned (you won't be able to see your dog if your back is turned). This trick was more frustrating for Caspian in general. He knew that he was being clicked and treated for something that had to do with his mouth but didn't quite understand at first. If your dog gets frustrated during a training session, cut back on the amount of time for each session, but always try to end on a high note.

TEACHING TROUBLE

My dog doesn't understand that he's being clicked for yawning. How can I fix this problem? Since a yawn is a natural response that a dog might give for either being tired or anxious, he usually doesn't even notice when he's doing it. Making him aware that he is yawning is the key to this trick. It may take several training sessions, but eventually your dog will get it!

Tip "This trick presents better if you use a cute command like "Are you sleepy?" or "It's bedtime."

A special thanks to Donna Heishman who took the screen shot of our new members during the October General Meeting.

There are two scholarships currently available by the club. If you know a worthy recipient for the Terri Clary scholarship, please contact a DTDC Board member or Training Committee member. For the Greg Quintana Memorial Fund, please contact Robin Quintana.

TERRI CLARY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

In keeping with the club's mission and in recognition of the hard work of both dog and handler, the Terri Clary Memorial Scholarship is awarded to the canine/handler pair that has made the most progress overcoming significant training challenges. This Scholarship allows dog and handler to come back to the next session of beginner obedience classes, free of charge, to allow them both to meet their goals.

The Greg Quintana Memorial Fund

Greg started with his first dog McKenzie in puppy class in 2005. McKenzie and Greg went on to compete in obedience and rally. He and Jax once again started in puppy classes in 2009 and competed in obedience, rally and conformation. Greg also shared his six dogs in therapy work. Dog training opened many doors for him to pursue many adventures. He would be proud to see the juniors carry on his love of dog training and showing.

The Greg Quintana Memorial Fund will offer scholarships to Juniors for training classes and entry fees for any venue in conformation or performance event. Juniors can apply up to three times a year. A request for an application can be sent to grquintana@sbcglobal.net.

My young homebred cairn (GCHB Lochinver Jennifer Juniper) won back to back Terrier Groups in late October. The judges were both very well respected terrier Judges: Mrs Patricia (Pat) Hastings and Lydia Coleman Hutchinson. Lydia is a second generation Cairn breeder/judge. Pat has written the Puppy Puzzle and other excellent books for novice and long time dog owners. Both have judged at many National and International terrier shows. The wins were pretty amazing for my JuneBug. Special deep appreciation to David & Jennifer Harper who care and handle Junie with professionalism and love.

Craig Shuman poses with the judges from the Nosework Trial held in Alvarado.

The advance class joined the Master Class folks in entering a three-day Nosework trial October 15-17 in Alvarado. The qualifying runs and element titles were unbelievable. The advance class members who were new to trialing were blown away by their dogs. Those there from DTCDC competing were Jean Robson, Miriam Inglehart, Vicki Jackson, Ruth and Vernon Miles, Robert Rodgers, Georgann Hughes, Sheryl Barker, Robin Snyder Vogel, Benita Zapata, Barbara DeLamar and Mim Aiken. Oh yeah and me, Jan Hitchborn! Georgann, Benita, Robin and I were so proud of them. They will be posting personal brags.

Our advance class folks were very vocal when asked by other new novice competitors asking where they trained telling them DTCDC. They are great promoters of our club in all disciplines. I passed out brochures, discussed Eventbrite and answered their questions on how to fix or do some things. I know Benita and I felt like we were constantly being tapped on shoulder to talk to someone or being approached after our dogs ran by non Nosework folks watching wanting to know more about this sport.

We anticipate more great trials for all in the future.

Craig Shuman was there as a volunteer extraordinaire. These are the three judges he assisted - Nancy Anderson, Deanna Butler and Ellen Heavner. He lifts, carries, sets search areas, times and watches as judges set hides. He helps folks competing unload and reload their vehicles. He is one volunteer who NTNWC, Lonestar K9 Performance and UDOG want at all their local trials.

Benita Zapata brags:

(Left) At the NTNWC trials on October 16-17 Raiden was presented with a nice plaque for earning her UKC Master Nosework Champion Title on August 8, 2021.

(right) Raiden was hand delivered a nice ribbon for earning a Detective leg with a Fourth Placement. This was an AKC Scentwork trial in Tulsa Sept. 6th.

Georgann Hughes brags:

Swish earned a tough to get UKC Nosework title on October 15 in Alvarado at the North Texas Nosework Club/ Lonestar K9 Performance Club trials - Master Handler Discrimination.

The handler must stand in a small area without moving after sending the dog into the search area to find an article belonging to the handler among 11 other boxes containing articles belonging to other handlers. Let me tell you, all of those articles are pretty smelly!! All of the boxes are at least 20 feet from the handler. Swish has to learn to work well away from me without my input at all - not an easy feat for this dog. I cannot be prouder of this girl!!!

These pictures are from the Elite Exterior searches from the same weekend. Even though we did not Q, Swish worked very, very well. We will get there!

Jan Hitchborn brags:

Great day at Nosework trial in Addison at All Fur Fun hosted by United Nosework. Skye was DIW for novice. Her first DIW assignment and she nailed both. She is in Master level now and needed one success for the master interior trial one with a second place and did trial 2 for grins and nailed it also with a second place. She received great comments from judge Bob Rodriguez that she was spot on, concise, solid alert and held. Thank you, Victor Borrás, for your odor drills which all mine do weekly. Last time Bob judged her was in novice at WAGD in Richardson 2019 she was a nervous Nellie. She has come a long way baby and loves this sport.

Logan had a great day as always. He was entered in superior interiors both trials and earned a third place in each. Then picked up an elite interior with a second place. I got even more practice in reading his body language as I run both dogs off leash as much as possible so while they search for odor, I watch what the body language is telling me. So, for Logan three more legs for Grand Championship.

FYI in case you haven't caught on, I love this sport and all its nuances as much as my pups do!

Jean Robson brags:

I don't have any action shots yet or a Halloween shot but this is what we both looked like after 3 days of trials. Jak did a great job getting 6 legs out of 8 trials.

Mim Akin brags:

Miriam Inglehart brags:

Tris brought home some ribbons from the UKC nosework trial in Azle Tx on Friday and Sunday this past weekend. She earned her Novice Handler Discrimination (HD) Title, Novice Vehicle Title & Novice Containers Title, with 3 2nd place finishes

Robin Vogel brags:

Gabe and I had a wonderful time at the Lonestar Nosework Trial in Alvarado. He earned his Masters Exterior Title with a 2nd placement. He also earned his Masters Vehicle Title and a 1st placement.

Sheryl Barker brags:

Who says that old dogs can't start and compete in a new sport? Daniel, age 10, started and completed his UKC Novice Containers title in Alvarado.

Vicki Jackson brags:

Jackson entered her first Novice Handler Discrimination class. She earned two qualifying runs. She also was entered in Advanced Containers. She earned two qualifying runs which qualifies for her Advanced Container title. This was in Alvarado with North Texas Nosework Club and Lonestar K9 Handlers Club. Thanks to DTCCD trainers Jan Hitchborn, Benita Zapata and Georgann Hughes.

Let's Celebrate Nosework!

Friday October 22nd, we celebrated the Advance class's successes at the recent UKC Nosework trial in Alvarado, October 15-17, 2021. It was harder to get the lady at the bakery to spell things correctly (top, left) than it was for any of our dogs to earn a qualifying run at the trail. There were still errors on it. It was supposed to have another C and say "students rock". Oh well!! (Middle, left) Congratulations to all (from left) Amy Quinn Schwartz (does mainly AKC with her ESS), Miriam Ingelhart, Sheryl Barker, Jean Robson, Ruth Miles, Vernon Miles and Robert Rodgers.

We did a couple different practice/training scenarios in class. Advance worked exteriors to train better alerts in an outside area where some dogs struggle with the environment and a second area with a food distraction to train off. Inside we did a different set up at the far end of the room to work the dogs searching a blank area and learning it is ok and rewarding a good search. All dogs were worked off leash to determine ability to work away from handler. Handler had to stay at the opening. Not one dog had an issue searching on their own and after checking the few items started back to their handler with a question type look at them. Not one dog alerted out of frustration as no handler was crowding them and making them think there must be something there. We rewarded blank searches. The handlers did not know there was a blank area. It was their first time to stay back, watch how their dog worked without them and start reading when their dog says there is nothing. Handlers witnessed their dogs not stressing to find something and how it is necessary to not crowd their dogs. This skill is needed in upper levels of trials for both UKC and AKC. The class did this blank exercise one-on-one as they rotated in from outside so no clues were given by others.

Beginners had the items from outside in the inside search area. Not one beginner dog had an issue finding the three odors and giving their alerts voluntarily. We encouraged off leash, but the handler could be in the area just keeping a distance. These dogs all showed they know their job; it was a lesson to the handlers to stay back, don't assume and let the dog find and alert without handler pressure. We moved all the items around and they nailed it again. Dakota, Rex's smooth coat Collie, even catalogued the painted dumbbell on the wall painting and declared it neutral! Was a win-win session for all. The beginner folks were cheering each partnership and clapping.

HOW TO WALK A HUMAN A Dogs Guide

Humans need exercise. If they don't get it they become "chubby". It's up to you to save them.

1. Allow your human to tether themselves to you. This keeps them from wondering off or running away.
2. Your human will probably need breaks. Be considerate and stop and sniff often.
3. Bark frequently. Humans have short attention spans.
4. When you go to the bathroom, walk away. If you have trained your human correctly, they will pick it up. Good aerobics.
5. Periodically drag your human as fast as you can. This is called interval training.
6. Do not allow your human to shorten the walk. They are being lazy. Sit in protest if you must.
7. Once you return home, allow your human to remove their tether, then lick their face many times. This is positive reinforcement for a job well done.
