New Business

Lynda Walker suggested that the club issue a newsletter on a monthly basis. Barry Rutherford stated that he would assume the responsibility of printing, etc. The name of the monthly letter will be the Pawprint.

Ruth Robinson, Program Chairman, ably assisted by Katie Meiser and Katie Blute presented a program on the merits of owning a Pet Rock. Several snide and unfavorable comments were made, very unfairly I might add, about the pet rocks. Grace Robinson did a magnificent job of showing us how to train a pet rock. The little devils did exactly what they were told, when they were told. This did not speak well for our dogs, who do quite the contrary on occassion. The author of these minutes, who wishes to remain anonymous, suggests that the next time we have a program of this import, we should commission a portrait by the famous painter, Norman Rockwell, who else?

Barry Rutherford moved that the meeting be adjourned; Karen Cotter seconded; it was duly carried. The meeting adjourned at 9:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
